6. PROPERTY

6.1 The Purchaser shall be allowed up to and including the Closing Date, which shall be referred to as the "Due Diligence Period", to satisfy itself that:

- (a) the title to the Property is good and free from restrictions, mortgages, charges, liens and encumbrances except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement and save and except for: (i) any registered restrictions or covenants that run with the Property, provided that such have been complied with, (ii) any registered municipal agreements and agreements with publicly regulated utilities, provided that such have been complied with, (iii) any easements and rights-of-way, provided that such have been complied with, (iv) any qualifications, reservations, provisos and limitations contained in or imposed by any applicable statute and/or any authority having jurisdiction over the Property provided that such have been complied with, (v) any discrepancies in title or possession which would be disclosed by an up-to-date survey;

- (b) there are no outstanding orders, deficiency notices or directives issued by any federal, provincial or municipal authority affecting the Property; and

6.2 If, within the Due Diligence Period, the Purchaser notifies the Vendor or the Vendors' Solicitors of any valid objection to title or to any outstanding order, deficiency notice or directive or to the fact that the present use of the Property may not be lawfully continued and which the Vendors are unable or, in their discretion, determine not to remove, remedy or satisfy and which the Purchaser will not waive, this Agreement shall, notwithstanding any intermediate acts or negotiations in respect of any such matter, be at an end, then the Vendor shall refund to the Purchaser the amount paid without interest or penalty and the Vendor shall not be liable for any costs or damages or other claims. Save as to any valid objection so made within the Due Diligence Period, and except for any objection going to the root of the title, the Purchaser shall be conclusively deemed to have accepted the Vendors' title to the Property.

6.4 The Vendor, upon the request of the Purchaser, shall forthwith deliver letters in a form satisfactory to the Purchaser addressed to such governmental authorities as may be reasonably requested by the Purchaser or its solicitors authorizing the release of any information as to compliance matters which such governmental authorities may have pertaining to the Property; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize or permit the Purchaser to request any governmental or municipal inspections of the Property. If this Agreement is not completed the Purchaser shall keep any such information strictly confidential and shall not use it for any purpose whatsoever.

6.5 There is no condition, representation or warranty of any kind, express or implied, that the condition of the Property shall be appropriate for any particular use, unless expressly set out herein, or that the present use by the Vendor or the future intended use by the Purchaser is or will be lawful or permitted, or that any sketch or survey delivered by the Vendor to the Purchaser is complete or accurate. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, this Agreement shall not be affected by any change in the zoning or use of the Property prior to completion. The Vendor shall not apply for any change in zoning after the Acceptance Date and prior to completion or termination of this transaction, without the Purchaser's prior written approval or consent.
